

The Day the Crayons Quit by Drew Daywalt, illustrated by Oliver Jeffers

Suggested sentence openers for Thursday's lesson.

If I were a crayon I would be a ... crayon because

I would draw...

Sometimes I would.....if.....

I might.....

My favourite thing to draw would be ...

On a Monday (change the day if you want) I would stay in the box because...

My best friend the ... crayon also likes to...

My owner....is always drawing....

I am used to create .....

I love belonging to ..... because

I do get tired of always being used to draw...

Little note to the young author

I am sure that you will be able to think of other super sentences openers all by yourself or after talking about the task with your grown-up. These are just some suggestions.

Have fun writing!